Why do a York Course?

- to learn more about the Christian faith
- to tackle the biggest questions facing humanity
- to examine your own beliefs, in fellowship with others

Suitable for Lent - or any time of year - our easy-to-use ecumenical courses bring famous voices and challenging opinions into your discussion group.

“York Courses deserve a gold medal for services to Lent: whenever I used their material, my living room was full to bursting; whenever I didn't, we had spare chairs.”

Church Times reviewer, 2011

HANDING ON THE TORCH

Sacred words for a secular world

Christianity is the largest movement our world has ever seen. It continues to grow at an immense pace – especially in Asia (including China), Africa and Latin America. At the same time, Christianity in the West struggles to grow and – perhaps – even to survive. In this course we consider some of the reasons for this and what it might mean for individual Christians, for churches and for Western culture, in a world where alternative beliefs are increasingly on offer.

- Session 1 – A Christian Country?
- Session 2 – A Secular Society?
- Session 3 – A Beleaguered Church?
- Session 4 – Competing Creeds?
- Session 5 – Handing on the Torch

THE COURSE BOOKLET is written by best-selling author, John Young. Each of the five sessions ends with questions designed to stimulate lively group discussion. Ideally each group member should have a personal copy.

THE CD AND AUDIOTAPE contain five 14-minute radio-style starters for group discussion, with Simon Stanley putting questions to the participants – Archbishop Sentamu, Rachel Lampard and Clifford Longley. Each of the five sessions closes with a reflection by Bishop Graham Cray. Former Archbishop of York, Dr David Hope, introduces the course.

THE COURSE TRANSCRIPT provides a complete record of the ‘conversation’ between the presenter and participants on the CD/audiotape. In an easy-to-follow format, the transcript booklet cross-references with the track numbers on the CD making it simple to find the start of each new question posed to the participants. The transcript is especially useful for group leaders as they prepare. It can also help group members feel more confident about joining in the discussion – and enables them to go over the recorded material at leisure.
