About

RECEIVING CHRIST in five different ways

'To all who received him ... he gave power to become children of God.' (John 1.12.) This raises big questions. Aren't we all children of God anyway? Just how can we receive Christ? And what does it mean to have 'a relationship with God'?

In a course crammed with discussable questions, John Young teases out from the New Testament various ways in which we may receive Christ.

John's course booklet is supplemented by the course CD, featuring four leading Christians from a variety of backgrounds. Together they demonstrate that St John's magisterial Gospel has very practical implications for our day-to-day lives.

THE COURSE BOOKLET is written by best-selling author, Canon John Young. Each of the five sessions ends with a wide range of questions designed to stimulate lively group discussion. Group members will benefit from having their own copy of the course booklet.

THE CD contains five 14-minute radio-style starters for group discussion, with former BBC broadcaster Canon Simon Stanley putting questions to the participants: Bishop Nick Baines, Margaret Sentamu and Ken Howcroft. Each session closes with a thoughtful Reflection by RC Sister and Theologian Theodora Hawksley.

THE TRANSCRIPT booklet is an easy-to-follow record of all the words spoken on the CD – especially useful for group leaders as they prepare. A personal copy can also help group members feel more confident about joining in the discussion, catch up on missed sessions, and reflect at leisure on what the CD participants have to say.

5 SESSIONS:

- 1 Receiving Christ: as children of God
- 2 Receiving Christ: in the stranger and the needy
- 3 Receiving Christ: in Holy Communion
- 4 Receiving Christ: through prayer and fellowship
- 5 'Christ in you, the hope of glory' (Colossians 1.27)
